PHILADELPHIA, SEPTEMBER 1.

An ADDRESS of the GRAND JURY for the County of Cecil, in the Province of Maryland, to the Author of a Series of Letters, ſigned, A FARMER.

RESPECTED SIR,

THE Americans were ſo pleaſed and lulled aſleep with the Juſtice their Mother-Country had done them in repealing the deteſtable Stamp-Act, they did not perceive the ill Conſequences that would attend divers Acts of Par-liament relative to the Colonies.

It is to you, Sir, they are indebted for awakening them at this critical Juncture, by your ingenious patriotic Far-mer's Letters.

Permit us then to throw in our Mite, "amidſt the general Acclamations of your Praiſe," and aſſure you, that with Hearts overflowing with Gratitude, we [illegible] not only the eminent Service you have done [illegible] ſove-reign's Subjects in North-America, but [illegible] your Letters diffuſe the true Spirit of Li[illegible]y.

HENRY SLUY[illegible], Foreman.

The ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

I Sincerely thank you for the favourable Notice you have been pleaſed to take of my Endeavours to aſſert the In-tereſts of the Britiſh Colonies on this Continent, and am ex-tremely glad, that my Conduct is approved by you.

I heartily wiſh Proſperity to you, Gentlemen, and to your County.

Philadelphia, Aug. 24, 1768. A FARMER.

PHILADELPHIA, OCTOBER 13.

Extract of a letter from a Gentleman living in London, to his Friend in Philadelphia, dated Auguſt 3, 1768.

"The Conduct of the Boſton People has raiſed a freſh Cry againſt the Americans, and a Number of pitiful Scribblers are daily exaggerating their Crimes to the public Eye, without underſtanding their Subject; in ſhort, nothing can be more contemptible than the low Abuſe with which an intereſted Faction, or the ignorant bigotted Slaves to Power, are conti-nually treating of them.——A Report prevails, that ſome Changes will take Place in the Adminiſtration, and that G. G——le will again take the Lead; if that ſhould prove true (which however I hope it will not, though I think his Abilities ſuperior to moſt in the Nation as a Financier) I cannot but prognoſticate Conſequences on this Occaſion, big with the greateſt Miſchiefs to both the Mother Country and her Colonies.——

"For my own Part, I know not of any People, ſince the Ruin of the Roman Commonwealth, that ſeem to me to entertain more juſt Ideas of Liberty, or breathe forth a more true Spirit of Independence, than what the brave Sons of North-America do. The Petitions of her Merchants, the Remonſtrances and Reſolves of their Aſſemblies, and, in a Word, all their public Tranſactions diſplay a manly Reſolu-tion, and quick diſcerning, that is not to be equalled by any Body of People in the World. This cannot but engage my good Wiſhes for their Preſervation and Proſperity, whatever Extremities Things may be puſhed to.

"If Things are not accommodated ſoon, it will be attend-ed with almoſt a general Bankruptcy on this Side, one or two very capital Houſes have juſt ſtopped Payment, and ſeveral others are upon a tickliſh Foundation."

Extract of another Letter from London, Auguſt 12.

"The Affairs of the Colonies are really become very ſerio-us; we think, as you do, that you ought not to be liable to Taxation at Pleaſure of Britiſh Parliaments; but if any Expedient, by Way of Compromiſe, could be thought of, it might be much preferable to Extremes on either Side."

Captain Robinſon, from Alicant, informs us, that an 80 Gun Ship was embarking Troops there, in order to join a Fleet fitting out at Cadiz, deſtined, it was ſaid, for South America, with the utmoſt Expedition.

Thurſday laſt four Horſes ſtarted for the Ladies Purſe, of 50l. which was won by Lewis Morris, Eſquire's brown Gelding, Luggs.

And on Saturday the City Plate, of 50l. Value, was won by Strumpet, belonging to Lewis Morris, Eſquire.

OCTOBER 20. Friday laſt the General Aſſembly of this Province met here, when Joſeph Galloway, Eſq; was unanimouſly choſen Speaker.——On Saturday Charles Moore, Eſq; was appointed Clerk of the Houſe; and Owen Jones, Eſq; Provincial Treaſurer.——Benjamin Franklin, and Richard Jackſon, Eſqrs, were alſo appointed joint Agents to tranſact the Affairs of this Province in Great-Britain. And the ſame Day the Houſe adjourned to Monday, the ſecond Day of January next.

The Honourable Aſſembly have ordered their Speaker to get, from London, a Reflecting Teleſcope, with a Micrometer of the beſt Conſtruction, for obſerving the Tranſit of Venus over the Sun, which happens on the third Day of June next.

With Captain Falconer, from London, came Paſſenger, the Honourable William Coleman, Eſq; Second Judge of the Supreme Court of this Province.

On Thurſday laſt Captain Friend ſailed for London, with whom went Paſſengers Richard Penn, and John Moore, Eſquires.

By Accounts from New-Orleans we learn, that the Troops from Spain [illegible] not arrived there the Beginning of Sep-tember; but [illegible] part of the French Troops had entered into the Spaniſh Service; and that a Decree of the Court of Spain was juſt come to hand, concerning the Trade of that Colony, the Subſtance of which was, that from the Firſt of April last, no Permission would be granted to any French Vessels to go there; and that thereafter all their Trade must be carried on directly with Spain.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman of distinction in New-York, dated October 10.

"Letters have been received in town from New-Hampshire, Boston, Rhode-Island, and Connecticut, which advise, that the inhabitants are filled with rage and indignation at the villainous proceeding of the British ministry to oppress his Majesty's loyal subjects on this continent, and bring them into base and mean compliances; and they are determined, in general to assist one another, when it shall become necessary, in defence of their just and constitutional rights and privileges, at all events; and hope the southern colonies will have more virtue and spirit than to be tame spectators of the ruin of their country. I assure you the inhabitants of this city highly approves of the conduct of the brave New-Englandmen, and seem resolved to risk their lives and fortunes in the common cause, if the infatuation of an abandoned ministry, or a wicked governor, shall reduce them to that necessity."

Extract of a Letter from St. John's, Newfoundland, dated September 28, 1768.

"On the 15th Instant we had a very extraordinary Gale of Wind, which has done considerable Damage; it began about S. S. E. and S. E. the Severity of which was felt from 3 o'Clock till 20 Minutes after 5 in the Morning, when the Wind suddenly shifted to the S. S. W. and S. W. which occasioned almost every Vessel in the Harbour to drift; even the Guernsey, in which our Governor presides as Commodore.——Several Vessels were forced on Shore, by the Violence of the Gale, all of which were got off, save one, a Snow, Captain Chevalier, from London, that is doubtful.

"A Brig from Trinity, in this Island, bound out a Banking, was drove into the Narrows of this Harbour, and there beat to Pieces; four of her Hands were drowned, the rest saved themselves, by climbing up the Rocks.

"Our Advices from the Northward are not very authentic; but, from what we can yet gather, most of the Vessels are drove ashore, and a Number of Boats lost. From the Bay of Bulls we hear for a Certainty, eleven Sail are ashore, few of which are expected to be got off; they chiefly belong to the West of England, and 17 People are drowned. One Banking Schooner, belonging to Dartmouth, which sailed the Evening before, is lost, and all on board perished, on the South Point of Petty Harbour.—Several others, that sailed about the same time, are supposed to have shared the same Fate, as it was impossible to carry any sail. The Pearl Frigate, from the Southward, met with several Disasters in the Gale.

"Our Advices from the Southward are, that all the Vessels at Ferryland, and Renown, are ashore, except one or two, of which cannot be so particular, till I hear further.——It certainly was the hardest Gale ever known here. A Ship is seen by her Masts only, out of which some Persons have been drowned and taken up. Many Wrecks are seen along the Coast; some of them not as yet discovered to whom or where belonging. It was extraordinary to think with what Force the Wind blew; had it continued a little longer, no one Vessel, I imagine, could have been safe. It has done considerable Damage to our Flakes, Stages, Wharfs, Boats, &c.

"P. S. September 23. A Ship from Philadelphia is off the Harbour."

Letters from Fort Pitt, of the 25th of September last, say, "That on the 17th, Ensigns Hamilton and Trasey, having some words, a challenge ensued, and notwithstanding the endeavours of their brother officers, they could not be prevented taking their satisfaction, which they did the next morning; they were so eager that having moved but 200 yards beyond the centinels, exchanged pistols and fired so quick, that the party sent to bring them in prisoners, believed that but one pistol was fired, though it appears each shot at the other, and Ensign Trasey received a ball in the right breast, of which wound he died the 24th in great misery; Mr. Hamilton's distress on this occasion, is beyond expression."

On the 9th Instant arrived here the ship Minerva, Captain Arnot, from Rotterdam, with 300 Palatines; all in good health.

NEW-YORK, OCTOBER 17.

On Wednesday last his Excellency General Gage, Colonel Robinson, Colonel Maitland, Major Small, and several other Military Gentlemen, embarked on board a Vessel bound to Rhode-Island, in their Way to Boston.

The General Assembly of this Province, are to meet here on the 27th Day of this Month, to proceed upon Business, pursuant to the Circular Letters sent to the Members for that Purpose.

Extract of a letter from Cork, dated August 16.

"We are here in great pain about poor Boston, and more so as our present ——— came at the records in the registry-office, Dublin, he took them from thence, and had a yatch ready to carry them to England, but was detected, and modestly confined in the castle there, until they were all returned, this is a specimen of English dragooning, for Ireland as well as America."

Captain John Walker, of the Brig York, arrived here on the 12th Instant, in 22 Days from New-Orleans.

NEW-HAVEN, SEPTEMBER 30.

We are informed, that last Saturday, Capt. Crane arrived at Killingsworth, in 43 days from Jamaica, which place, he reports he left, in company with Captain John Coddington, of Newport, in a snow; that the next day after they came out, a flash of lightning struck Captain Coddington's main-mast, run into the hold, where was a quantity of rum, which in an instant took fire, and in a few minutes the whole vessel was in a flame. Some of the unhappy people jumped into the sea, and were drowned, and those that remained on board were destroyed by fire. So that the whole company, (including one man and three women passengers) seventeen in number, were all lost. Captain Crane's boat not being fixed he could give them no relief, tho' he was at no great distance from them.

BOSTON, OCTOBER 10.

It is reported that several applications have been made at home, for the Lieutenant Government of Virginia; but that the gentlemen who applied, were informed, that it would not be disposed of 'till it was known whether Governor B——— would accept of it. It is said that government is worth 3000l. sterling, per year. If his Excellency accepts of the above offer, it is said, his Honour the Lieutenant Governor will be appointed to succeed him; and that a certain Honourable Gentleman, a Brigadier General of the colony troops in the late war, during which he distinguished himself, and who is equally esteemed for his probity and firmness, will succeed the Lieutenant Governor.

There are barracks in the Castle within the limits of this town, sufficient in the judgment of his Majesty's council, who were unanimous in their opinion, to receive both the regiments arrived here and lodge them comfortably: But the Governor thinks it necessary that they should be quartered among the inhabitants.——The sensible part of the people see no reason for a step so disagreeable and dangerous, unless barely to gratify the commissioners of the customs, who it seems are tired of their chosen residence at the Castle, and think they have made themselves so obnoxious to the inhabitants, as to render their residence in this town hazardous, without a thousand men to protect them. His Majesty's affairs in the mean time do not seem to be affected at all in this struggle, for the revenue, which has never been interupted, is paid with as much punctuality while they are at the Castle as if they were in the body of the town.——One of the regiments is encamped on the common near the center of the town: The other being unprovided with quarters before their landing, not having their tents on shore, and the commanding-officer, who knows his duty, being it is presumed sensible that quarters could not by act of parliament be demanded even in public houses while the barracks at the Castle remained empty, after having in vain endeavoured to persuade the families living in the manufactory-house to remove, in which case they would have had no where to go but into the street, he marched the regiment at sun set, to Faneuil-hall: Here they halted several hours, but it is said could not obtain liberty of the selectmen of the town to enter; however, they finally took possession—The gentlemen of the regiments, as well as the soldiers, behave at present with civility to the inhabitants, and we are persuaded will find that they have been misinformed, even since their arrival at the Castle, with respect to the true character of the people.——On the other hand, the inhabitants have no personal disregard to them, but would be glad to treat the King's troops with the cordiality with which they treated the regiments formerly in town with the brave General Amherst: But the errand on which they now come seem to be too apparently different—Nothing will either flatter or awe this people into a voluntary submission to be taxed by others without their consent.

QUEBEC, AUGUST 18.

Extract of a letter from Michillimackinac, to a gentleman in this city, dated June 30.

"Trade is very dull here, though we have many traders. All those who wintered between this and the River Mississippi, complain of the French and Spaniards, of New-Orleans, having undersold them considerably in every article; in consequence whereof the Indians bordering on the river, used our traders very ill, plundered many, killed several Englishmen, and one Canadian, for which violence we have two hostages of the Sauk nation, who are to remain here till the rest of their tribe bring in the offenders."

SAVANNAH, (in Georgia) OCTOBER 12.

From Augusta we are told, that the Creeks have not yet effected a peace with the Cherokees, though very earnest to do it; and that all the troops excepting three companies are withdrawn from West-Florida.

OCTOBER 19. Captain Ryall, of the schooner Juno, from St. Augustine, gives us the following account of what happened at the Muskitoe settlement in August last.

"On Saturday the 20th of August, lying wind-bound for the harbour of Muskitoes, in company with the East Florida Packet, John Sangster master, both loaded with corn for the settlement, an express arrived about eight o'clock at night, with an account of a mutiny begun by about 100 of the settlers, who had forced many of the others, to the number of 300, including women and children, on board a schooner then lying in the harbour belonging to Messrs. Terrans and Michie, in which they intended to proceed to the Havana; and that they had wounded several of the English people who were at the settlement, particularly Mr. Cutter, who has the management in Dr. Turnbull's absence, whom they left for dead, having cut off his right ear, three of the fingers of his right hand, and stabbed him in the groin.

"I immediately, by order of his Excellency Governor Grant, took on board a serjeant and 12 men, two carriage guns and six swivels, with ammunition, and two months provisions, with an intention to pursue them to the Havana if they had got out. The East Florida Packet was fitted out in the same manner to go in company with us; and a detachment of 50 men, under the command of Captain Rainsford, was sent by land.

"The weather proving favourable we got off the inlet on Monday the 22d in the morning, just as the pirates were warping out: As soon as they saw us, 20 of the heads of them cut away the boat, and rowed ashore. When the flood made we went in, and after firing two swivels, they struck. We made them go up to the harbour again, and took out 75 prisoners.

"On Wednesday the 25th the detachment arrived, and on the Friday following marched back again to St. Augustine, leaving a serjeant and 20 men at the Muskitoes to guard them. About 40 of them were severely punished at the settlement, and 15 of the ringleaders we carried with us in order to take their trial at the ensuing sessions.

"During the time of the disturbance, they broke open the magazine, and took out a considerable quantity of stores."

OCTOBER 26. Capt. Forbes, from Kingston in Jamaica, informs us, that about two months ago they had a slight shock of an earthquake in that Island, which threw down a few houses at the plantations to windward.

A sloop from the West-Indies with negroes arrived at Sunbury on Saturday last.

A schooner from the Bay of Honduras, Brown master, belonging to Rhode-Island, is put in here in distress, having been out 50 days.

From the PENNSYLVANIA CHRONICLE, October 17.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in New-York, dated October 10, 1768.

"I Don't remember a more ridiculous affair than the military parade at Boston.—The Boston people have got an advantage in a way they did not expect, and the infamous B——d, and all that espoused the same arbitrary sanguinary measures are fairly hampered in their own contrivances. Now the troops, &c. are come, they can do nothing at all, nor can be the least protection or security to the commissioners, or any one else. The military gentlemen here, I mean those who approved violent measures, and, to their honour be it spoken, they are few in number, seem a good deal chagrined about it, and when the whole affair comes to be known, the ministry and all their creatures must be equally objects of ridicule and detestation to all the world. The ministerial tools, and the soldiery, who think an act of parliament will warrant them for cutting our throats, and violating every right the British constitution entitles us to, are by an act of parliament under the severest penalties restrained from presuming to quarter soldiers upon private houses, which is wholly to be done by the civil magistrates. Governor B——— himself cannot do it without the consent of his council, which they having, as in duty bound, absolutely refused, he and his creatures are become objects of derision, though they are swelling ready to burst with rage.

"It gives pain to the Inhabitants of Boston, as well as this city, that the Ministry should send his Majesty's troops upon so ungrateful an errand, that they cannot receive that respect which would otherwise be shewn them for their bravery and intrepidity against the enemies of our common country (Great-Britain, Ireland, and the colonies) during the late war, which has always been paid them on former occasions."

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

Friday last the Ship Brice, Captain Muir, arrived here from Bristol, by whom we have the following Advices, viz.

LONDON, AUGUST 26.

COLONEL Charles Hotham is appointed to the command of the 15th regiment of foot, late Sir Jeffery Amherst's.

AUGUST 27. We hear that one of our India ships, lately arrived, fell in with a pirate ship, in the Chinese seas, the commander of which was a Frenchman; the ship was manned with blacks, and was cruising against the Dutch.

AUGUST 29. The Hague gazette, of the 19th instant, under the head London, says, "The conduct of the inhabitants of several of the English provinces in America, continues to employ the attention of the ministry. At the same time the agents of these colonies exert their utmost endeavours to prevent rigorous measures being used to constrain them to obey the acts of parliament which have been so often mentioned."

A native of Corsica, being the other day at a coffee-house near St. James's, was asked by some of the company, What would his nation do, in case General Paoli being either poisoned or assassinated by his enemies, as had more than once been attempted? to which he heroically answered, should this misfortune happen, every Corsican would be a Paoli to revenge his death, and defend his country.

One Peter Donaldson, a native of Scotland, arrived in London a few days ago, from the kingdom of Morocco, where he has been in slavery twenty-seven years.

This morning, at about eleven o'clock, the King of Denmark's baggage, with several of his attendants, went through Whitechapel, in their way to Cambridge, and it is said his Majesty will follow to-morrow morning.

It is thought that the King of Denmark will pay a visit at the Duke of Northumberland's, at Alnwick, before his return from the north, and that his Majesty will return by the way of Oxford, in order to have an opportunity of seeing the two great seminaries of learning in this kingdom.

They write from Hamburgh, that several noblemen of Poland were just arrived there, and it was expected great numbers would speedily quit the kingdom, and retire into other countries, till the present troubles should subside.

The directors of the police at Berlin, have published the report which has been made by the Council of health, concerning a sort of rye, which the Germans have made use of for some time, as a substitute for coffee. The Council have declared it salutary, and prefer it to the coffee usually brought from the Levant and India.

A letter from Quebec, says, "Upon a farther enquiry into the crimes for which a gentleman has been arrested, it is thought his accusers will find it not a very easy matter to make out their charge against him."

It is rumoured that a noble Lord is speedily to go to Berlin, charged with a commission of a very interesting nature.

AUGUST 31. His Majesty's ship the Egmont, which was launched last Monday at Deptford, is ordered down to Woolwich to be rigged, and completely fitted for sea.

Extract of a letter from Corte, July 26.

"On the 21st of this month an English frigate arrived in the harbour of the Isle of Rouge: She came from Portsmouth, and made the voyage in twenty days. As soon as she cast anchor, the Captain and two other officers landed, and without stopping a moment, repaired to General Paoli. It is thought they are charged with some very important commission. As soon as the French knew of the arrival of this ship, they sent a xebeque to enquire what errand she was come upon; but we do not yet know what answer they received."

They write from Leghorn, that General Paoli lately made a speech to the Corsican youth, to animate them to defend their country. "Every nation, he said, which like our own has been zealous for its liberty, has experienced vicissitudes which have immortalized its name. If to maintain liberty nothing was to be done but to desire it, the whole world would certainly enjoy it. But this valuable jewel can only be acquired by a virtue and a courage that overcome all obstacles. The condition and prerogatives of a free people, as they are so considerable that no just idea of them can be conveyed, are the astonishment and envy of the greatest men. We are now at the most critical epocha. If we do not withstand the danger that threatens us, our reputation and liberty are at an end. In vain have we consoled ourselves with the thought of our own heroism; in vain have our ancestors taken such pains and spilt their blood. No: Ye famous and magnanimous defenders, who have sacrificed your lives to obtain and preserve your liberty, fear not that you will be dishonoured by your descendants. They have resolved to tread the foot-steps which you have marked!"

We hear from Russia, that the two Majors General Pocserchania and Apraxin, each of whom commands a corps of Russian troops in Poland, have been created knights of the order of St. Anne.

It is a notorious fact that the government of Virginia was given to Sir Jeffery Amherst as an honourary, as well as a pecuniary mark of favour, for the signal services he had done to his country in the early part of the late war: It is as well known that this brave officer continued, throughout the course of the war, to add fresh laurels to the British arms, for which no further reward of any kind was bestowed upon him. It was impossible Sir Jeffery Amherst could, consistently with the rank he bore in the army, reside as Governor of a colony in America, whilst a junior officer had the chief command of the troops.

Was not Sir Jeffery Amherst offered a pension producing (clear of all deductions) a sum equal to, if not exceeding what he received from his government of Virginia?

Is it not fully as honourable to accept of a pension as to take a government on the conditions of non-residence? the latter being in other words the same thing as a pension.

Extract of a letter from Sheerneſs, Auguſt 25.

"This morning early ſeveral expreſſes were received here, to fit out, with all expedition all the ſhips, ſloops and cutters, now in this port, to proceed immediately to Deptford to wait their Lordſhips further orders."

CORSICA, Auguſt 4. Saturday laſt a body of 2300 French troops that were encamped in the environs of San Fiorenzo, being deſirous of poſſeſſing the eminence, from whence that city was ſupplied with water, they ſent there 300 men, under the command of a Captain of grenadiers: Twenty Corſicans, foreſeeing the deſign of the French, had already poſſeſſed themſelves of this eminence, which they defended for two hours with the greateſt bravery, but were at laſt driven from thence. In this attack an officer and five French ſoldiers were killed. A hundred Corſicans who were poſted near that place, hearing the firing of the muſquetry, ran in the night following, and engaged the French, diſlodged them, notwithſtanding a reinforcement which they received from the commandant of Fiorenzo. The next day the whole body of French troops raiſed their camp, and marched towards Barrette, in order to diſlodge from thence a detachment of the Corſicans, but were obliged to retire with loſs.

On the firſt inſtant, the French, being ſtill deſirous of becoming maſters of the heights, carried by aſſault a trench defended by forty-two Corſicans, who not chuſing to aſk quarter, were all put to the ſword. During this action the French poſſeſſed themſelves of Patrimonio, a village ſituated about three miles from San Fiorenzo, where they made ſixty priſoners, including men, women and children. They afterwards directed their march towards Barbeggio, in order to poſſeſs themſelves of that diſtrict, but were obliged to give over the attack, through the vigorous defence of the garriſon. The ſame day the garriſons of San Fiorenzo and Baſtia made a ſally with ſome field pieces, in order to make themſelves maſters of Furiani and the height of Montebello. On this occaſion the combat was very bloody, but we know not the particulars.

Yeſterday very early the French troops made themſelves maſters of Barbeggio, though not without loſs, owing to the vigorous defence made by the Corſicans. Afterwards they directed their march towards Cape Corſe, where there will be again a great deal of blood ſpilt. It is aſſured, that in theſe ſeveral combats, the Corſicans have loſt ſeveral brave officers, among others the Captains John di Roſino and Archilles Murati, the latter of whom took Caprea from the Genoeſe; and M. Burbaggi is made priſoner. The French on their ſide, have loſt a colonel. It is pretended alſo, that there has been an engagement near Iſle Rouge, between an Engliſh ſtate of war, and a French chebeck.

CONFINES OF ITALY, Auguſt 8. We hear that the court of Turin has refuſed the paſſage for a body of French troops, which was intended to have been embarked at Genoa for Corſica. It is remarked, that his Sardinian majeſty is augmenting his magazines, and has made a numerous promotion, his troops being now on as compleat a footing as if he was on the eve of a war.

REVELATIONS, III. 15, 16, VERSES.

I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: So then, because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot: I will spew thee out of my mouth.

BENJAMIN HAWES,

DESIRES all who are indebted to him on his private concern, to discharge the same as soon as possible, and those to whom he is indebted to call and receive payment. The books of his co-partnership with Mr. FLAGG being already put into the hands of Thomas Tod, in order to be settled; and the books of his co-partnership with Mr. ROGERS, will, as soon as they can be brought up, be put into the hands of one who will be properly authorised to settle the same.

He likewise acquaints his friends and the public, that he carries on by himself, at his house behind the Old Church, the Coach and Harness-making, together with the Painter's and Glazier's business, in all their several branches, and as he has provided himself with good workmen, he makes no doubt of giving satisfaction to whoever will be pleased to favour him with their custom. 6 w.

THOMAS BOOTH,

COACH, SIGN, and HOUSE PAINTER,
from LONDON;

TAKES this Method of informing the Public in general, that he carries on the above Branches at his Shop in Broad-street, near Church-street; he flatters himself he shall meet with the Approbation of those who employ him, as he will warrant his Preparations.—PINE KNOTS are well known to be very Destructive in HOUSE PAINTING, he therefore will obligate himself to stop them from Weeping, in such a Manner that the Pannel though ever so full of them, shall not be the least perceptable, though finished with the lightest of COLOURS.

OIL and COLOURS warranted.

For S A L E,

A RICE PLANTATION, consisting of 1050 Acres of RIVER SWAMP, on the Carolina side of Savannah River, nearly opposite the Town of Savannah, formerly belonging to Mr. John Smith; having a spacious Barn 120 Feet long, including a Walk of 40 Feet square, for the Cattle that work the Machine, which is of the best kind and quite new, with a Wharf before the Barn Door. The Land has 100 Acres clear, under good Dams, and has produced a plentiful Crop of Rice this Year. It may be taken possession of in February next. Enquire in Savannah of BAZIL COWPER, or COWPER & TELFAIRS.

FIFTY POUNDS REWARD.

ABSENTED himself from my service, on Thursday the eighteenth day of August last, a likely stout young negro fellow named about five feet ten inches high; he has a remarkable large wound in the calf of his leg, and speaks bad English; he is so well known in Charles-Town, and most parts of the province, as to render any further description of him quite unnecessary. Since his absence he has been seen in several different houses and kitchens in the said town: I have therefore, from this, and other information, sufficient reasons to presume that he is harboured, entertained and encouraged by some white persons, to keep from my service, in expectation of my parting with him to them; I DO THEREFORE give this public notice to every one whom it may concern, that I am determined not to sell him for any sum of money that can be offered by any person whatever for a negro: But if the said fellow will forthwith return to me within one week from this date, I promise to overlook and forgive this offence. In the mean time I will give Ten Pounds currency reward to any person, white or black, that will deliver him to the warden of the work-house in Charles-Town. And after that time I will give Fifty Pounds currency reward for his head, should he make resistance in being taken by any person whatever, and the same sum if he is taken and delivered as aforesaid, and sufficient proof is made of his being harboured by a white person, or Ten Pounds if harboured by a negro, on conviction of the offender. All masters of vessels and others are hereby forewarned not to carry him off the province, as they or their securities may be assured of being prosecuted with the greatest severity, and every advantage taken that the laws of the province will admit of.

THOMAS STONE.

Charles-Town, October 22, 1768.

RUN-AWAY sometime in July last, a NEGRO BOY named TONEY, he is supposed to be harboured at Hobcaw, having Relations there. Whoever will bring him to the Warden of the Work-House, shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward, from

DAVID HENDERSON.

N. B. Whoever is found to have harboured him, shall be prosecuted according to Law.

JOHN CHAMPNEYS,

FOLLOWS the FACTORAGE BUSINESS by himself, and hopes for the Continuance of the Favours of his Friends, as he will endeavour to give Satisfaction to all who may please to employ him; he also hopes for the Continuance of those Gentlemen's Custom, who have had their Business done at the Wharf, and they may depend on the same Diligence and constant Attendance as formerly. 6m.
